

If the internet connection does not provide continuous play, you have at least two options.

1. Pause the player for a while.

Click on the “Pause” button (  ) to let more of the sermon download.

Click on the “Play” button (  ) to resume listening.

Think of the moving “Blue Line” as filling the bucket and the moving “Bar” is emptying the bucket. If the bar catches up to the end of the blue line, the bucket is empty and the player will stop until it fills some more. You could wait until the blue line makes it all the way to the end – then you can listen (click on “Play”  ) without interruption.

2. Download the file first then play it directly from your computer. Here's how:

Right click on the sermon you wish to save and play later. Click on “Save link as...”

Audio Files

Sermons

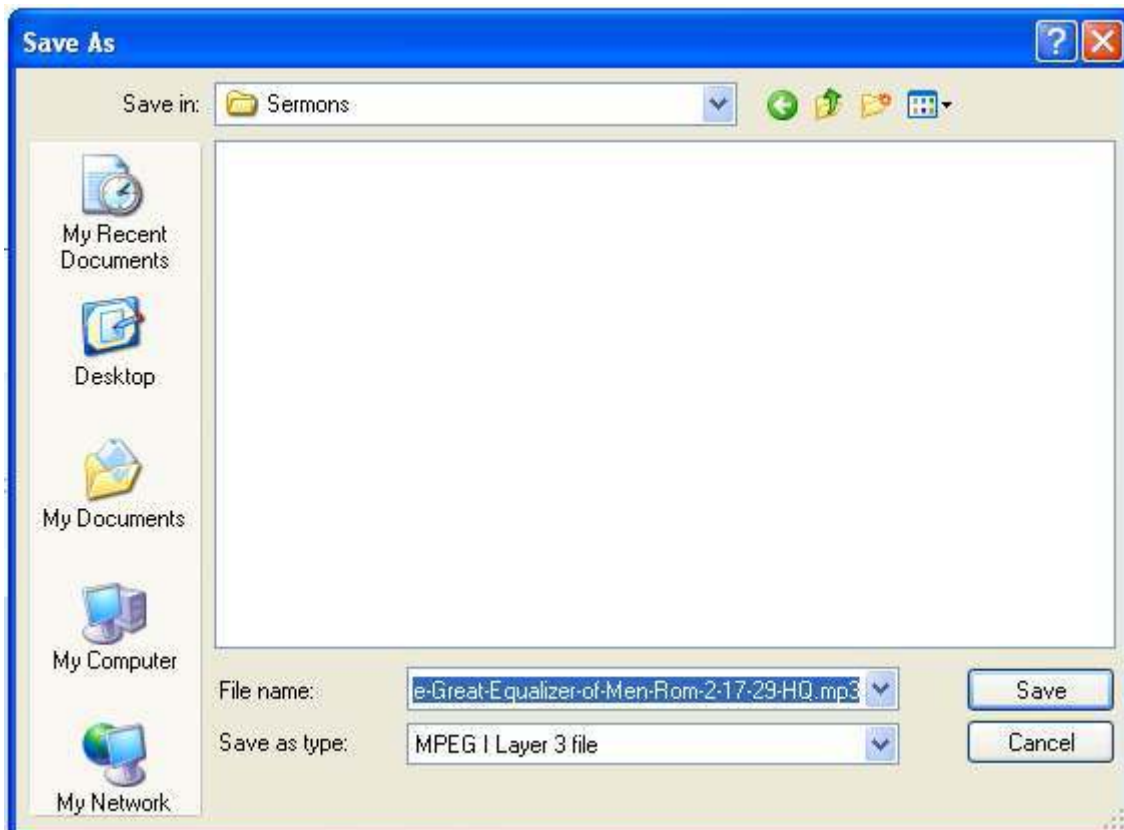

August 2010

100815 AM How Does God Judge Rom 2:1-16

100815 PM The Great Equalizer of Men Rom 2:17-29

Select a folder then click on the “Save” button.

After the download is complete, navigate to the folder where you saved the sermon and double click on it to play it.